

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Dexter Armstrong,
Plaintiff

v.

Case No. 10-cv-196-SM

Michael J. Astrue, Commissioner,
Social Security Administration,
Defendant

O R D E R

After due consideration, the court adopts the Magistrate's Report and Recommendation, largely for the reasons stated therein, but with a modification. The vocational expert's application of the dictionary of occupational titles to the RFC assessment appears to have been correct. But, the evidence discussed at pages 30-32 of the Report and Recommendation persuades the court that the ALJ's RFC determination fails to take into account claimant's actual limitations. The case is remanded. The ALJ should re-determine claimant's residual functional capacity so it accurately reflects his well-documented limitations.
